OUR TOWN

For President, Governor Alfred E. Smith.

For Vice-President, Senator Joseph T. Robinson.

For United States Senator, Alvin Owsley.

For Governor, Louis J. Wardlaw.

The rag-tag and bob of political remnants have met and resoluted. At Dallas Tuesday the advance guard of the "rebellion" pawed up a little dust on Texas soil and looked around to see if the Lord was following. It was a motly crowd of worn out politicians, Klansmen, ex-liquor champions, preachers, little college professors, republicans and a few other dispeptics who like the ground hog, came out from under their sheets in 1924 and after seeing the gathering storm went back for a more convenient season.

V. A. Collins utters a falsehood when he says that Governor Smith is a traitor. He utters another falsehood when he says that Governor Smith is disloyal to the constitution. "I do not know if there is a Klan organization in Texas," he said "but I wish there were 10 million in this state." Of course every fanatic wishes that, but the conservative and the constructive people have outlawed such a thing in Texas. Governor Smith is going to get the electoral vote of Texas and this great state of Sam Houston is going to declare independence again from Dallas county.

Listen to Mrs. Bloodworth: She was asked to address the meeting. She asked the audience to stand and sing "My Country 'Tis of Thee, Sweet Land of Liberty," which was done with a will. Shades of Jefferson and of Alvin Owsley! Then she said she had a message from God to "go forth and stir the people and set their faces toward the day when we will defeat Al Smith." She appealed to the ministry to preach against Governor Smith. "Sweet land of liberty." How we love liberty for ourselves but none for the Catholic. How could the ministers applaud such a tirade against a fellow Christian?

Brings to mind the Democra-Dalyrmple, hero of the "catch tic Convention of 1924. Maior as catch can" debate with Cyclone Davis, that old prophet of prohibition, and who defied the Mosaic law by twisting the beard of the Prophet, gave Mrs. Bloodworth a good lecture. Maior Dalrymple charged from the speakers platform in the senate hall which was the convention floor that the former Klan national committee-woman from Texas had helped to wield the lash on the back of a helpless victim during the masked terror reign in Tarrant county. The charge was unanswered. Now she goes forth with a message from God to turn the people against Governor Smith who loves his fellow men.

"This from the Bryan Eagle: "Ty" Cobb, who is attending the International Lions Club meeting in Des Moines, Iowa, wires: "Interviewed Senator Tom Heflin of Alabama, who spoke at the Shrine Temple here last night. Heflin spoke highly of Moody, Mayfield and Connally. Heflin is a great fellow personally, he told me several good jokes that I shall spring on the Bryan public. Des Moines is an insurance center and all have skyscrapers."

Observers of developments in Texas politics during the dark days since 1922 will not wonder

Smith Hanged in Effigy By Alabama Klansmen

Birmingham, Ala., July 8—The Birmingham News Sunday will say that an effigy of Governor Alfred E. Smith, Democratic presidential nominee was hung by members of the Wahouna, Ala., Klavern, of the Ku Klux Klan, several days ago.

More than 200 persons were in the party that was addressed by Klansmen who denounced "Steamroller tactics" at the Houston convention, and voiced their condemnation of "the Pope of Rome."

SENATOR EDGAR WITT ASKS FOR RE-ELECTION

STRESSES NEED FOR BETTER EDUCATION AND DISTRIBUTION OF PUBLIC BENEFITS

EDGAR E. WITT

Senator Edgar E. Witt of Waco was in Cameron Saturday to visit with his friends and to talk over his campaign for reelectionto the state senate.

Senator Witt has served the people in the Senate for a number of years and now approaches seniority in point of service, thus commanding greater prestige and more influence in the service he renders the people.

While in Cameron Senator Witt who has always been given a majority vote in Milam county, talked of the issues before the people. He is a friend of education, especially as it applies to rural education and his work has been one of interest in behalf of the schools.

Senator Witt favors a more equal distribution of tax money and is advocating that auto license tax be apportioned back to the counties. However Senator Witt made in plain that he does not favor Dallas county and other large Texas counties receiving back from the state all the money paid in, but the smaller counties, he does favor receiving the amount paid in. He points out that the larger counties get back what they pay in the result would be an uneven distribution of public benefits. Senator Witt is to be congratulated on this sane policy.

SHALL DEMOCRACY LIVE?

An Editorial

The Democratic party is now engaged in a conflict with the forces of destruction in state and nation. The battle cry has been sounded and all loyal Democrats everywhere are called to duty. They will not be without experience for they remember the battles of 1922 and 1924 and 1926 and today it is the same.

Fanaticism is now fanned to white heat by action of the National Democracy in choosing their standard bearers and the spectre of intolerance spreads over the land. The false claim of many who denied that religious prejudice was their motive is now discovered. Other issues they advance, but the record shows that in the campaigns dating back to 1920 and beyond, their votes were cast for the standard bearers of the party in state and nation without quibble.

Now that Governor Alfred E. Smith, Catholic, has been nominated for the Presidency the rebellion becomes wide spread and they cry aloud, revive the Klan, promote the Protestant Protective League, all in the name of prohibition.

America has had only one dry president in our history, James Madison. James M. Cox of Ohio was given the mantle of Wilson who vetoed the Volstead Act. Cox carried the vote of Texas. Again in 1924 John W. Davis of West Virginia who is a director in the Association Opposed to Prohibition, was the standard bearer. These same hypocrites extolled the greatness of Davis and voted for him without question. They worship at the shrine of Wilson, Jefferson and Jackson. All were wet personally as well as politically. This is said in no spirit of criticism for all were great and good men. They gave to this nation the greatest advances known to the Republic. Hoover the Republican nominee says Prohibition is a great experiment. If Governor Smith were a hypocrite he could have said the same.

We recognize an honest division of sentiment on any public question but when people voice their opposition to leaders of the party, invoking intolerance and religious prejudice in violence to the provisions of the constitution and the spirit of America it is another question and as such the Democrats are called upon to meet it and solve it.

The remnants of intolerance left over from the Klan days are taking on new life, aided by revolt and the nomination of one whose religious view does not meet the conceptions of those who vote for a wet Protestant but never for a wet Catholic.

It is unfortunate that there should arise in this country conditions to parallel those of other recent years but we must face the facts as they exist and meet the issue as we met it in those years.

Still nurturing its hatreds for men who opposed its plan, the Klan now sees opportunity for revenge as well as opportunity for expansion, using as capital the promising circumstances of a religious war. The Protestant Protective League is not a prohibition measure but a recruit to the parent organization. Night sessions are being held. Secrecy is the watch word. Organizers for every district are promised by the bolters. Thy will find the organization ready. Will Democrats be less alert? No. We will meet them with the proud heritage of freedom and sustain the party of Jefferson and of Jackson.

Shall Democracy live?

Real Democrats and Real Americans in Milam County, in Texas and in the Nation will meet this menace to liberty and freedom as they met it before. We are going back to the party of Jefferson. We are going to write some history again. We are going to show the cranks that this is a land of freedom and that he who opposes them can be elected to office and merit the esteem of the Republic. We are going to set at rest for all time the insidious whisperings of rebellion against great and honest Americans. We are going to prove that such a campaign of villification is un-American. We are going to prove that Jefferson was right when he wrote the statutes of Virginia. We are going to prove that this is a land of liberty. We are going to prove that honest and honorable American citizens who have in all ages of the Republic given their blood for its defense—from Concord to Flanders, all the way—be they Catholic, Jew or Protestant, are all Americans and as such, entitled to the benedictions of the Jeffersonian State.

The baleful light of flaming crosses ignited by intolerance will not dismay the hosts of liberty.

Days of political buccaneering are upon us again.

Pirates in the party in a fell swoop of vicious vindictive, have challenged the doctrine of Jefferson that gave to America its course of freedom in the Declaration of Indpendence and in the Constitution.

This heritage of freedom, first born in the institutions of ancient Greece and given vitality in the broad human hearts beating in the breast of American patriots who declared that all men are created free and equal, and that all are entitled to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness—the doctrine that for centuries has been the safeguard of human rights and the beacon to which all men of all creeds and blood have turned in the peaceful and happy expansion of the Republic, is facing today the most sinister challenge since the days of Western greatness.

Aided by the loose loyalty of designing politicians the hordes of rebellion have unsheathed the sword to guillotine the liberties of men and take us back to the days of terror and chaos.

Politics is the science of government in a democracy. Political parties are necessary to enact into public benefits the aspirations of the people.

We are now engaged in a campaign to test whether America is a land for all men who seek the folds of its flag or whether the minority controlled by hatred and prejudice shall rule.

"He who dallies is a dastard and he who doubts is damned."

FIGHT FOR NAME ON TICKET LOST BY LOVE

COURT OF APPEALS SAYS COMMITTEE HAD RIGHT TO KEEP NAMES OFF TICKET

San Antonio, July 17—State Senator Thomas B. Love of Dallas lost his fight to have his name printed on the Cameron county primary ballot today when the fourth court of civil appeals denied him a writ of mandamus against the Cameron county democratic executive committee.

The committee had refused to print his name on the ballot as a candidate for lieutenant governor because of Love's announcement that he would not support the democratic presidential nominee, Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York.

The Cameron county committee also barred the names of Mrs. Edith Wilmans of Dallas and William E. Hawkins of Houston, candidates for governor for the same reason that it omitted Love's name.

The only appeal is to the supreme court and to facilitate such an appeal both sides agreed today to waive the customery two week's notice for a motion for a rehearing.

Decision Unanimous

The decision which was fully concurred in by the justices, recognized the "right of any American citizen to change his political theories and party affiliations," but declared that "when such a change is contemplatedjustice to his former party demands that he should not seek its honors or emluments.' The opinion was written by Chief Justice W. S. Fly.

Discussing a candidate's obligations to his party, the opinion said: "He cannot weaken or destroy hs moral and legal obligations to support the nominee for president and vice president named by the national democratic convention by crossing his fingers at the time he signs the pledge, afterwards remarking in an undertone 'I will not vote for Al Smith if he is nominated.'

Cite 'Evasion'

"By no such quibbling," the court continues, "mental reservation or secret evasion, can a man absolve himself from a solemn pledge voluntarily made.

"To uphold such a doctrine," the opinion continues, "would make a football of a ... pledge and place disloyalty u... pedestal."

Touching Love'... filli tion with the democratic par... he ruling says: "Affiliation is a... alliance with an institution or organzation and working against the nominees and seeking to elect nominees of an opposing party. Supporting the nominees is the supreme test of party affiliation."

Should Have Withdrawn

The court then holds that Love should have had his name removed from the party consideration after the Beaumont convention. Continuing the decision said:

'When Love took the vow of loyalty to the nominee of the democratic party in order to enter a primary as a delegate to the state convention at Beaumont, he had every reason to believe that Governor Smith of New York would be the democratic nominee for president, and if his conscience demanded that he should not vote for him, he should not have taken the vow but in honor and good faith would have had his name removed from the state ticket and affiliated with the party whose national nominee his is working. That action would have met the demands of his conscience and removed him from a position subjecting him to just criticism.

Not to Censure

'It is not the intention of this court to censure and criticize the actions of those who have been democrats but now forsake the party and enter the ranks of the republican party, but its opinion is confined and restricted to the case now under consideration and cases of like character which may arise hereafter.

"This court will not lend itself to any far-fetched construction of the powers of the state executive committee as would deprive the constituent committees of the party of defense against any fraud attempted to be perpetuated on the loyal members of the party. This court is not prepared to hold that the democratic executive committee of Cameron county cannot in self defense of its loyal constituency refuse to place on its primary ticket the names of men seeking office while admitting that they have violated their obligatons of loyalty to the party, and intend to carry their disloyalty to the extent of combining with the arch enemies of democracy in defeating its highest candidate, and thereby cause demoralization if not disintegration of the party."

Mrs. C. H. Pollard has been the guest this week of her sister, Mrs. George Byars of Tempe. Mr. Pollard and two sons are enjoying the Boy Scout Camp near Milano this week.

Town's Leading Assets

Everyone knows that a town's best assets are the citizens that are always ready to render unselfish service form the general good. There are certain well-known channel through which public service may be rendered, such as chambers of commerce, civic clubs, banking and commercial institutions, the press, the churches, the schools, and public offices. The ideal town is that in which all these activities are at work co-operatively all the while, and such united action is hard to obtain. The person with the most favorable opportunity of securing this co-operation for a town is perhaps the mayor. He should be not only an executive in city affairs, but should have the personality and ability necessary to harmonize and co-ordinate every local agency for the good of the community. Therefore the mayor has it in his power to be the most helpful or the most useless man in his town. His influence depends upon an intelligent, unselfish personal service.

Lockhart's Editor-Mayor

There are many good mayors in Texas, many who measure up to the requirements. I came across one on the job recently at Lockhart. He is editor W. M. Schofield of the Post-Register. When I called at his office I was told that he was out for a "short time" and probably could be found where a street force was at work tarviating a street, but that he would not be gone long. I went to the place. He had been there, but had gone to the newspaper office. When I found him he began telling me his plans for a street bond issue of $100,000 with which he proposed to complete 25 miles of street tarviating in Lockhart. He was enthusiastic about an upbuilding program for his city and talked so well about it that I at once caught his enthusiasm and if I had been in town a half hour longer I would doubtless have been out talking the advantages of a street bond issue.

Publicity Essential

Enthusiasm can not be created without publicity. Editor Schofield's good work at Lockhart is greatly enhanced by the fact that he lets the peopie know what he is doing and trying to do. He has two excellent mediums; he talks and he writes, and does both well. Much is said now about "pitiless publicity." Mayor Schofield furnishes a fine example of "progressive publicity." The combination of a good mayor and a good newspaper man is hard to find, but when found is one that can not be excelled. In proof of this, just watch Lockhart.

Luling Farm Foundation

Edgar B. Davis, the Luling oil magnate, is furnishing the money with which a wonderful work is being done at Luling for the farmers of that part of Texas. Caldwell, Gonzales and Guadalupe counties are the special recipients of his generosity, though Hays and Bastrop counties appear to be reaping almost equal benefits. Giving a million dollars for that purpose, he has bought and endowed a farm of 1223 acres of rich San Marcos river valley lands right at Luling, whichis a demonstration farm for that section conducted altogether by the Foundation. It is directed by a local board and is under the management of Jack Shelton, an enthusiastic young graduate of Texas A. & M. College, who is showing on every acre of the big farm how to combine brains with musclein successful farming. One can't see that farm without getting a love for farm life. The farmer who wants to do better farming, and the town man imagines that he, too, could make a success of it.

Farmers' Short Course

The Luling Farm Foundation has inaugurated a short course of study and demonstration in a tabernacle built on the farm for that purpose. Farmers and their families are invited to come and camp there in a beautiful grove on the San Marcos river. Lectures are delivered by experts in every branch of farming and farm home life. Questions are invited and answered about everything pertaining to the farming industry and its allied branches. The farm is there to show for itself how the best results are obtained and experts to tell what methods are being used. There are entertainments with moving pictures, there is singing, there are social features. Instructions are given in swimming and there are play hours for the young and grown-ups, in charge of recreation teachers. The short course is a wonderful educational and social gathering for farmers' families. It would be great to have men of the Edgar B. Davis type in every county in Texas—men glad to share their good fortune with others, men glad to contribute to the welfare of their fellowmen.

Why Poor Legislation

AWest Texas legislator is quoted as saying that he spent a month in what looked like it would be an unsuccessful effort to find someone to succeed him in the legislature, as no one wanted to make the necessary sacrifice, until at last he found a University student who would accept the place provided he had no opposition. The student explained he could "çit in' 'on the legislature without interference with his school work. Too many legislators merely "sit in" at sessions. Too many others are elected because more competent men can not afford to serve at the meager salary Texas pays its lawmakers.

Tax Values Four Billion

Assessed taxable values of Texas will go above the $4,000,000,000 mark this year for the first time in the history of the State. Texas has numerous other sources of revenue from which to pay its current expenses. The State treasury now has about $19,000,000 on hand, of which about $12,000,000 belongs to the State Highway fund.

Concho Water Project

The Concho Water Development company project for water supply for San Angelo and irrigation of lands in the Concho Valley has been pending before the State Board of Water Engineers since January 30 and has not yet been set for hearing. It is being held up until some adjustment is made of the differences between the Syndicate Power Company and Brownwood interests a controversy in which similar questions are involved. Many Texas towns are finding that their future progress is contingent on their right to theuse of the waters of the streams on or near which they are located and which power companies are also wanting to appropriate.

Florida Bubble Bursts

The receivership of one of Florida's largest land corporations, with an estimated outstanding indebtedness of $29,000,000 should be a warning to those trying to create fictitious real estate booms in Texas. Claims aggregating only $4,050 were all that was necessary to throw this big land concern into the courts, with what will likely be heavy losses to many land speculators. Texas realtors should take a firm stand against land and city lot booms and if the realtors will not do it, chambers of commerce and other local organizations should do so as a matter of community protection. A bursted land bubble does injury from which recovery is slow and difficult. Texas needs neither booms nor boomers.

TO THE DEMOCRATS OF TEXAS

The decision of the Supreme Court June 25th upholding Land Commissioner, J. T. Robinson, in the numerous cases involving the University and Public Free School Lands and the rights of land owners accentuates the importance of the position he holds and the necessity of having in that place an experienced business man as well as a trained lawyer. No prudent man and no association composed of prudent men would intrust a business of such magnitude to an individual without experience in the line of business involved. The State Land Office has become a great business institution through which come to the State millions of dollars every year, due largely if not wholly, to the business judgment of the present incumbent, J. T. Robison. It would be extremely hazardous for the people of Texas to place the Land Office in the hands of an inexperienced man of unknown business ability. Mr. Robison has demonstrated his fitness for the place, his honesty and his courage to stand for what is right regardless of consequences and the Supreme Court has recently sustained him in what is said to be the most important land case ever before that court

We are asking you to consider the matter from a business stand point as you would view your own private affairs, and if you reach the conclusion that Mr. Robison should be retained, as we think he should, we trust that you will call the matter to the attention of others to the end that a public business involving many millions and one's ownership of land will not be disturbed or possibly destroyed.

CRACKLINGS

Igot a good one off on the lady of the house the other day. The little girl asked her mother: "Why hasn't daddy got much hair?" Her mother replied sourly: "Because he thinks a lot darling." The little girl then asked: "Then why have you got so much hair mother?" Mother of course paused and told Betty to go on with her breakfast.

Kids, chickens and dogs—any one or a combination of all three, is an infallible, guaranteed, tried, tested and insuperable cause for a good neighborhood row, and these three causes outrank all others according to the Justice of the Peace.

Speaking of clothes, isn't it true or is it? Men wear them to cover themselves for defense and the women wears them for the purpose of attack.

I note where Peggy Joyce's $40,000 motor car has been seized for nonpayment of payments. Those who believe that every motor car costing more than $1000 is bought for cash, will be greatly amazed at this, I am sure.

I note an item, a Seattle boy, three years old, smokes cigars. We suppose in the course of a year, people work off a good many inferior cigars on the innocent little fellow, taking advantage of his youth.

I love birds and there is a little bird that sings every morning in the trees across the street. It has a lovely song I am sure, but it could be improved a lot by being sung about two hours later each day.

I was reading in one of the papers where an employer called in one of his workmen by the name of Brown and said to him, "Brown, when I am out of the office, you are the laziest man here."

I have often ventured the guess to myself when seeing three men, just men around about talking, what the most logical and probable subject of the conversation was and I have come to the conclusion that it would be motor cars, booze and women, no doubt, would be a little different. Their subjects would be clothes, motor cars and men.

We know of many rather strange stunts that subscribers use in reminding themselves when it is time to pay their subscriptions. We heard of one new one that is very good and we highly recommend it. This man makes a regular rule of paying his subscription on Ground Hog day.

One of our men folks was much chagrined the other day when a Sunday school teacher told him of a peculiar incident. While in Sunday school the teacher asked his daughter who it was that turned water into wine. His little daughter promptly replied, "I know, teacher, it was Daddy." Which again proves that the older we get the more cautious we should be.

You can't fool the people of a small town. So often I hear a choice bit of gossip passing around. If I could print it in the local newspaper, it would surprise only the two principles.

An attorney friend of mine wrote me about a conversation he had heard in the court room some time ago. It occurred this way. A young bootlegger had heard that it was known he was plying his trade. He went to a prosecuting attorney very scared and asked him about it. The prosecuting attorney replied as follows: "My friend, you are getting scared over nothing. There is no warrant out for your arrest. The government has not indicted you under the anti-trust law for having a monopoly on brains. There has been some talk about it, but sufficient evidence has not been found against you, so you can go for a spell with your mental development plans. You must bear in mind however, that even if the government doesn't get you, you will still have to run the gauntlet of the vigilante committee. The committee is most all-fired tired of you and your wisdom. In fact if the committee thought you had enough neck to hang they might get bus. Local physicians say that any man who wears a No. 11 shoes and a 5 hat is a hard subject for the vigilente committee to work on, but we all agreed on one point, all we have to do is to give you plenty of rope and you will eventually hang yourself. You will go the way other fellows with small heads and big feet have gone. We have great hopes for you."

Someone wrote me not long ago and wanted to know what I meant when I spoke about the "nineties." Well I refer to the time when women went home from parties sober and old maids looked under the bed before they undressed.

Nothing bothers us very much, we know we will take nothing with us when we leave this terrestial sphere. Some folks kid themselves into thinking they will.

Political conventions are a wonderful invention to fool the people in a primary just as easily as the people can be fooled by a convention.

I note where a single atom properly harnessed will do all the world's work sometime. Gosh, if we were such a rip tearing atom as that, we wouldn't work unless we wanted to.

I saw quite a little picture in the movies the other night. It was how the Frenchmen made wine. It might give some of our friends a little suggestion. These big Frenchmen trampled the juice out of grapes with their bare feet.

The early worms are grabbed up by the birds.

This looks to be true in politics as well as other places.

OUR TOWN

at this endorsement of the Texas trio. Others will be disappointed. This column confesses regret but we are pleased that there is nothing about Alvin Owsley, Governor Smith or Louis J. Wardlaw to commend them to the approval of Heflin, arch enemy of our presidential nominee, religious fanatic and national Klan leader.

These words from the Galveston address of Alvin Owsley:

"The most important question in this campaign today is 'Shall the Democratic party be saved?' I champion Democratic principles and the party must be preserved in Texas. When the Houston convention nominated Alfred Emanuel Smith as their candidate for president of the United States they nominated the choice of Alvin Owsley. Later the other candidates for United States senator tried to climb on the bandwagon where I already had my reserved seat. "I believe in majority rule in the Democratic party especially so when more than two-thirds of the delegates at the national convention nominated the party choice on the first ballot."

Friends of Alvin Owsley as well as former Governor Ferguson are warned to take no heed of the attack now being made on him by a former employe of the Ferguson campaign. Guy Holcomb is now mailing out letters to friends of the former governor and to others in an effort to drive votes away from Owsley by making the statement that Owsley is a Klansman. This statement is untrue. Some who have always been opposed to the Klan are giving some credence to this assertion but not credence should be attached to it. Klansmen are supporting Conally and Mayfield here. We know of none supporting Owsley. The charge is nothing more nor less than a mean campaign trick and is utterly without foundation. Holcomb managed the Ferguson campaign in 1926 and is now employed by Conally to assist the Marlin Congressman to get the Ferguson vote.

Voters are warned against last minute rumors and false statements. The campaign always produces some falsehoods that appear at the last moment. Their circulation is not confined to any particular campaign. People in their enthusiasm give little or no heed to the consequences of false rumors. They very often do more harm than good but sometimes they injure innocent people. Paid politicians are the most dangerous. Loyalty that comes from paid service is not the kind that comes from spontaneous loyalty. There is now being circulated in Texas slanderous charges against some of the candidates by paid campaign managers, notably in the case of Guy Holcomb against Alvin Owsley. Democrats in Milam county and readers of this paper will take warning and vote for the candidate who supports the fight against bolters and who is in harmony with the National standard bearer.

CASH AND CARRY NO. 1

LOOKING THE PROHIBITION ISSUE SQUARELY IN THE FACE

The Wall Street Journal, July 3

Anything which tends to simplify the issues before the people in a presidential year is in the truest public interest. Without prejudice to Prohibition, as a theory of living or of government, it may be said that there has already been an important step made in the direction of sanity. It is now admitted that there is nothing unpatriotic or lawless in advocating the repeal of the Volstead act or even of the Eighteenth Amendment.

When the law came into effect the claim was made that liquor was at last taken out of politics. It was stated in these columns then that so far from that being the case liquor had become the most troublesome question in politics and would continue to exercise a disintegrating influence until a sane and temperate solution was reached. We should be warned by the way this problem grew up, and how our difficulties have arisen through following ignorant leaders into extremes.

These leaders were mostly of a clerical character. These ministers of religion were not of that kind who have a stabilizing background of letters, the genuine culture of a great university. They were educated only in the doctrine of the literal inspiration of the Bible; believing in such infallibilty as that they adopted personal infallibility on what they chose to consider matters of right living and demanded for their own judgment a degree of unquestioning acceptance which no Pope has ever put forward.

Winning in the Eighteenth Amendment, a victory beyond all their hopes and failing to see how embarrassing that victory would be, they assumed what may be described as a political dictatorship. The Anti-Saloon League played politics as Tammany plays it. Senators and Congressmen were browbeaten and cowed. They were told that repeal must not even be considered; that even discussion was disloyal. The separation of the Church and State in this country is a vital and fundamental principle of our government. But we have had imposed upon us a clerical rule of the most ignorant and intolerant kind. Is it any wonder that men like "Bishop" Cannon, Wayne Wheeler and the rest, overplayed their hands?

To the courage of Governor Smith is due a different and better approach to a question which must be settled if this country is to remain free. The Republican party should not shrink the challenge. It is said to be the party of capital, but all economic history shows that capital was always on the side of freedom. It is our duty to face facts as they and bigots would wish them to are and not as sentimentalists be. Prohibition is the greatest issue in politics today and party platforms do not cover it up with their timid euphemisms. You cannot ameliorate a cesspoll by sowing the surface with forget-me-nots and daises.

Let us have an election on honest issues honestly advanced with a general restoration of self-respect.

The fly's mouth and tongue are covered with fine hairs. Consequently some of the filth in which they mess clings to them. And the microscope discloses these tiny drops of unspeakable uncleanliness alive with bacteria-disease germs.

A fly may infect anything it touches such as milk, food, baby's eyes, open wounds are favorite sources of infection.

But with FLY-TOX a house can be kept free of flies and similar insects. FLY-TOX is fragrant, stainless. FLY-TOX is harmless to humans but sure daeth to flies, mosquitoes and similar disease carrying insects.—Adv.

asbestos shingles

You'll agree that a dealer should handle first quality materials only.

You expect a dealer to be an expert judge of the relative merits of the different materials he handles.

You should. He should be.

Why? Simply because the average person can't possibly keep informed about the many lines on the market—with all the improvements, changes, new features.

With this responsibility to our friends and customers in mind, the exclusive distribution of Eternit Asbestos Shingles in this territory was secured.

All over the country short-life roofings have been sold in large quantities during the past few years. Why? Because heretofore permanent, fireproof roofings cost too much money.

Now you can have a permanent, fireproof, attractive Eternit roof at very little more than you would have to pay for roofing that lasts but a few years. That's why we recommend

Don't Neglect Your Kidneys!

You Can't Be Well When Kidneys Act Sluggishly.

DO you find yourself running down—always tired, nervous and depressed? Are you stiff and achy, subject to nagging backache, dizzy headaches and dizzy spells? Are kidney excretions scanty, too frequent or burning in passage? Too often this indicates sluggish kidneys and shouldn't be neglected.

Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, increase the secretion of the kidneys and thus aid in the elimination of waste impurities. Doan's are endorsed everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

South Carolinians Excoriated as Lot of Pious Hypocrits

Columbia, S. C. July 14—In an editorial in his weekly paper, the Tribune, of Fountain Inn., S. C., Robert Quillen accused his state of being in the hands of "psalm-singing, liquor-guzzling, Jesus-shouting trash, without the slightest conception of the meaning of honor, constitutionally incapable of decency, inherently filthy in body, mind and soul'.

The reaction was such that Quillen in this week's Tribune, publicly announces he will crusade no more.

"I am through," writes Quillen in this week's editorial, which is captioned, "A Confession." "As an uplifter and reformer I am a dud. The people I had counted on for help, even the daily press, saw nothing in the first article but an insult to poor people. Some even accused me of seeking publicity, though why in Heaven's name I should desire publicity in South Carolina is more than I can guess. I'm not running for office or asking any favors of anybody.

Was Widely Resented

"One and all appeared in print (I am speaking of the recent ones, not those who called names and deliberately tried to be insulting; they don't matter) one and all objected to the diagnosis; insulted poor people by rushing to their defense; seemed to resent any criticism of South Carolina and expressed the opinion that conditions in the state were not so bad after all. Quillen just 'blew up' and 'went off half-cocked' and 'had an attack of dyspepsia,' and things like that.'

Well Known Writer

Robert Qullien is a well known author and newspaper writer. For several years he has resided in South Carolina. Prior to that he served on various newspapers through all parts of the country.

The most vigorous in their denunciation of Quillen were the papers in the smaller towns, especially those in the cotton mill sections, which referred to him in such terms as "snake in the fair grass of South Carolina, now biting the hand that fed him."

The larger papers had less to say, preferring, apparently, to ignore the editorial as unworthy of comment, or too ticklish to discuss. The State, for example, printed nothing until some time after the publication of the editorial, when, at the instance of a reader, it came out with a two-line paragraph, ending," We are glad to note that Quillen has recovered from his recent attack of dyspepsia."

The Editorial

In the editorail that caused the storm, Quillen said:

There is no other section of America where men are so quick to defend their honor as in South Carolina.

There is no other section where men are so quick to fight when given the lie.

There is no other section where so much is said about chivalry and the duty of shielding the gentler sex.

There is no other section where so much is said about being a gentleman.

There is no other section where religion figures so largely in the scheme of existence.

There is no section more certain of its superiority in righteousness.

There is no section where greater effort is made to observe and to enforce observance of Sunday as a day of holiness.

There is no section where a larger percentage of the population frowns upon dancing, card playing and other "worldly" pleasures.

There is no section where whiskey and wine and beer are more bitterly denounced.

There is no section where the law and the public are more severe in condemnation of gambling.

Has Lived Elsewhere

These statements are made without intent to be oratorical. They are a grave and simple statement of fact.

And I speak from first-hand knowledge for I have lived in Kansas, Oklahoma, Missouri, Nebraska, California, Washington, Vihginia, West Virginia, Ohio, Pennsylvania, North Carolina and Georgia and have spent a little time in several other states.

This section of the country as I say sets up high standards of righteousness, piety, chivalry and honor, and because its blood is hot it is quick to resent any criticism of its imperfections.

And yet I know of no other section that has so little reason to boast.

There is no other section where so large a percentage of the male population will lie to make a dollar.

There is no other section where dead-beats and liars are accepted by society as a whole and treated as courteously as honorable men.

Vulgar and Insulting

There is no other section where so many men make vulgar and insulting remarks about women, delights in filthy sex stories and abuse their wives.

There is no other section where men who think themselves chivalrous continue to treat women as inferiors who belong in the kitchen.

There is no other section where men who boast of being gentlemen are so abysmally ignorant of the qualities required in the making of a gentleman.

There is no other section where church membership and professed Christianity leave men so free to practice the immoralities frowned upon by all churches.

There is no other section where church people, while professing to believe the use of intoxicants sinful, consume so much moonshine whiskey.

There is no other section where so many people who denounce dancing, and card playing stoop to lying, cheating, slandering and stealing.

There is no other section where so many church people frown on gambling and yet gain and lose money in gambling in cotton futures.

Self-Righteous Hypocrits

There is, in short, no other section of the United States where so large a percentage of the population is composed of self-righteous hypocrits.

WHAT IS the explanation? You know these things to be true. Have you tried to discover a reasen for them?

I have thought over the matter for years, trying to discover why any people so fervent in its profession of righteousness should be so wholly lacking in the rudiments of honor, and I think I have found it.

There are in South Carolina many people who have no superiors in uprightness, virtue, chivalry and integrity. They are a minority.

The majority is dirt—psalm-singing Jesus shouting, liquor-guzzling, thieving trash, without the slightest conception of the meaning of honor—constitutionally incapable of decency—inherently filthy in mind, soul and body.

FIGURING PROFIT

The profit per item, plus the number of items sold, determine the total profits of a business house.

Even among enthusiastic followers of advertising, there are many who believe its virtues lie solely in increasing the number of items sold. Such is not the case. Generally, the share of advertising expense, chargeable against each item, is so small that it is more than offset by the discount earned from wholesalers and manufacturers on the greater quantities handled as a result of advertising which increases the number of customers. Such saving, in turn, makes lower retail prices possible; the lower prices again increase volume of sales. And so a great business is built.

The merchant, through advertising, is able to tell more folks of the specials he has been able to save money on, and more people told means more goods sold, and more goods sold means the merchant can buy for less. Everyone profits through advertising. Read all the ads and save.

CHURCH ISSUE PUT FORWARD BY BOLTERS

V. A. COLLINS, ADDRESSING DALLAS RALLY FEARS SMITH AGAINST RELIGION

Dallas, July 17.—Declaring that any man who would strike down the 18th amendment also would strike down section 3, article 6 of the constitution pertaining to religious freedom, former State Senator V. A. Collins of Dallas in his opening speech before the anti-Smith convention here today urged every Democrat voter in Texas to vote for Herbert Hoover for president and repudiate "the powers of iniquity."

Approximately 350 persons were present when the rally convened at ten o'clock.

Collins Is Caustic

Collins declared that there were two sides in the fight for the presidency of the United States. On one side, he said, were the ministers and God-fearing citizens of the country, on the other side were the powers of iniquity. He was constantly interrupted by cheering.

Collins predicted that Governor Alfred E. Smith would not carry a single county in Texas except those nominally republican. He promised Herbert Hoover a 10,000 majority in Dallas county.

"I don't know if there still is a Ku Klux organization in Texas," said Mr. Collins, "but if they are opposed to Al Smith I wish there were 10 million of them in the state."

Purpose of Organization

The speaker reiterated the fact that the organization meeting today was interested only in the forming of a state-wide campaign to bring about the defeat of the democratic nominee. "We are not promoting any candidate for state office," he declared.

Dr. J. W. Hunt, president of McMurry college at Abilene, pronounced the invocation when the convention convened.

"We face a national crisis," he said "We pray for deliverance from the hands of the spoilers in this our hour of moral suicide."

Election of officers and outlining the state-wide anti-Smith campaign was scheduled at the afternoon session.

THE STATE OF TEXAS,

WHAT WE THINK

By FRANK DIXON

The old convention days were entertaining. Torch light processions and wind jammers carried the days. The people voted with the biggest torch light procession.

We remember well the first time Cleveland was elected. Lots of Republicans refused to eat for one meal, but we were young and never missed a bite. Nothing happened to us. We had to go on working as usual. Everyone was troubled with hard times as usual, only the Republicans talked about it more and there were more of them. We believed most of the bunk and blamed the Democrats. And now we want to report it will make no difference to us who is elected the next president, we will have to get up early and work if we enjoy life.

The loafers, ranters and knockers will never save the country. The workers and kickers will keep it running regardless of whether they are Democrats or epublicans.

The people are fooled most of the time, fact, we think about all the time.

"Frailty, thy name is woman," said Shakespeare once, but Shakespeare never saw a girl base ball player in action.

The most tragic loss the human heart can know is the loss of faith in a friend. Death merely removes a friend and the memory of his fine qualities lives on and on, but faith once lost is lost forever.

This country has never yet built a monument to a man simply because he has amassed a fortune and never will. It has however, built many monuments to men who have given away a fortune in money, time and talent.

In the old days they said love was blind. Somebody must have put spectacles on Dan Cupid. Now it can see a bank roll a mile away.

There is a movement on to let the women keep silent in the political conventions. We rise to inquire who is going to enforce it.

What grandstanders some people are.

No one believes that the conscience of any of these "statesmen" is hurting them any.

As we understand it, the rising generation retires about the time the retiring generation rises.

There are times when even the most mild mannered human wishes his car was a tank. He would just hold his place in the road and let the road hog hit him as hard as he wanted to.

Speaking of thoroughness in work manship a firm of cleaners near by found five dollars in a man's trouser's pockets after his wife had gone thru them.

The wealth of the United States averages more than $3000 per individual. If you don't have that much get busy.

The thing that gives some communities the reputation for being live towns is the fact that there are a few live fellows in them who are not satisfied ti let things go as they are. It is a good thing for the community some times to become dissatisfied with things as they are.

The man who makes his good deeds a smoke screen to cover up his crookedness, doesn't fool anyone but himself.

The great American people continue to cheer. No one knows what it is all about, but they call it Americanism—a much abused word.

In the old days when women wore hats as big as a beach sunshade, they kept them on during the picture show but now when a woman goes to a picture show she peels off a hat that fits closer than a wet bathing suit, to keep from obstructing the view of those behind her.

A RIFLED PURSE Means A WRECKED VACATION

All packed up and ready to go?

But—somewhere in the crowds at the railroad station—on the pier—on the train or boat, may be lurking a thief who will rob you of your money and utterly spoil your long looked-forward-to vacation.

No money is safe from the greedy hands of the sneak-thief and pickpocket these days with crime so prevalent. Especially is this true when traveling—in strange places—among strangers.

But the way to outwit these smooth-fingered folk is to change your currency into Travelers Cheques before you leave on your trip. These Cheques are no temptation to crooks, for bearing your signature, they are of no use to anyone but you. And even if they should be stolen or lost (uncountersigned and not exchanged for value), their value is refunded.

The safe way to travel is with funds that are safe. Travelers Cheques are sold at this bank to ensure a happy vacation for you.

Companionship

The world was not made on the one-man plan. No man liveth unto himself." As life deepens and broadens and grows more worth while, our sense of the need of companionship broadens and deepens. If I cultivate only human friendship life may be worth while today and, perhaps, tomorrow, but there is an end to such ties. Sooner or later we must part. If I cultivate the friendship of Him who can get closer to my soul than any human friend, and who can retain that friendship forever, He will make my life rich in every way. Life will be worth while then, even if all men forsake me. The years may sweep all my earthly friends from me but I shall stil be able to say life is well worth while, and when I sit in the stillness of life's twilight I shall not be aone. There is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother," and nothing separates us from the love of God, neither height, nor depth, nor any other creature." "He has called us not servants, but friends."

LAND BUYERS NOTICE!

Some of the farms listed below are going to be sold within the next thirty days—and they are going to be sold at prices far below what you can buy similar lands in this or any other section for. This is your chance. Look them over:

A first class 117 acre farm, located 12 1-2 miles from Ganado (Jackson County), on State Highway, near good brick school, in good German and Bohemian community, 65 acres in cultivation, 15 acres meadow, and balance fine pasture; all fine, well drained, black land; good, painted, frame house, barn and outbuildings, all practically new. One farmer in this community made 80 bales of cotton off of 85 acres this past year, and others made an even better yield on smaller acreage. There is no farm like this in this county that is for sale at anything like the price this place wll be sold for.

220 acres, located just across road from the above farm; small set of improvements, with about 40 acres in cultivation; balance old rice land that has been pastured for a number of years and which can easily be put in cultivation. Has draw thru center and is well drained. All fine black land. Have buyer for 100 acres of this, but will sell all if wanted. Will take small farm as part payment.

114 acres 1 1-2 miles from Ganado; small set of improvements which can be used to fix up rent house, barns, etc; about 95 acres in cultivation; all good heavy black land that drains perfectly; few acres of timber along running creek. Considering location and everything, this will make one of the best farms in this country. Will take one-third of whatever I can get for this place in cash and give 15 years time at 5 1-2 per cent on balance.

227 acres, 2 miles from Ganado; small set of improvements, with about 70 acres in cultivation; over 100 acres of extra good black land and balance shades off to sandy land with red clay foundation; all has fine drainage; fronts on running creek with few acres of timber. Will take one-third cash, or good trade. This farm, as well as the 114 acres, is leased for oil and I would like to reserve part of the mineral right.

120 acres, all fine, black, well drained, prairie land, about 7 miles from Ganado and near school. This would make an A-1 farm.

111 acres, 2 1-2 miles from Ganado, 45 acres fair mixed land in field, balance pasture and timber; no improvements, but an old two-story house goes with place. Will sell very cheap and reserve part of mineral right.

I am going to sell some of these farms within the next thirty days—regardless of price. Will take part trade on some of these places. All of them, except the 111 acres, are first class places that you would be proud to own. If you are in the market for a farm, and want good black land, come and take a look at these farms and then make me an offer on the one you like best. If you act at once and do not wait untill someone else beats you to it, you can get a downright bargain. Don't wait to write. Bring your family along and look at these places.

F. H. KNIPLING

Office at Guaranty Bond State Bank, Ganado, Jackson County, Texas.

(I also own a number of farms in Live Oak, Lavaca and Fayette Counties, and on the Plains near Lubbock, any of which I will sell cheap. If you are interested in land in any of these sections, write for information.)

INDIGESTION

And Other Common Troubles Helped by Black-Draught.

"I think we owe the remarkable healthy record of our family to the use of Black-Draught," says Mrs. J. H. Luther, 514 W. Belknap St., Ft. Worth, Tex. "I was suffering from an attack of indigestion. Somebody recommended Black-Draught to me, and I got some and tried it. I felt so much better, after I had taken it, that I used it the next time I was sick, and then the next. I soon found it to be a dependable medicine to use for my family. "Whenever the children had colds, or an upset stomach, I treated them with Black-Draught." Sold everywhere; 25c.

TO THE DEMOCRATS OF MILAM COUNTY

Political developments in Texas during the past few weeks have featured three candidates for public office who will not support Governor Alfred E. Smith for the presidency and who declare their intention to vote for the Republican candidate. These candidates are Thomas B. Love, candidate for Lieutenant Governor; Edith Willmans, candidate for Governor and William E. Hawkins, candidate for Governor.

Requests have been made by a number of loyal Democrats that the Executive committee of Milam county refuse to print the names of these candidates on the official primary ballot. But for the fact that the ballots had to be printed in time for absentee balloting the matter of omiting their names would have been considered Their names were certified by the State committee and the county committee, in my opinion, felt that under the existing laws, no other course was open. In case of this kind mandamus proceedings are taken and usually a decision of the higher courts is made only a few days prior to the primary date and little time is left to print and deliver the ballots. This was true in the litigation waged against Eare B. Mayfield in 1922.

Undoubtedly the Democrats of Milam county are unalterably opposed to the course taken by these candidates and will register their disapproval at the polls on July 28.

As chairman of the Executive committee for Milam County, I feel that it is the duty of every loyal Democrat to cast a vote against these candidates and to eliminate them at the ballot box, thus making certain their defeat by opinion expressed in terms of rebuke for their disloyalty to the party. This method of elimination is certain and can be accompished without itigation and legal delay.

I trust that the next legislature will give thought to correction of the existing laws so as to make possible the elimination of the names of all candidates from the official ballot who do not support the nominees of the party. I am told that such a bill is now being written and if passed will enable the state committee as well as the county committee to deal summarily with bolters of the state as well as national election tickets. I am for the integrity of the pledge and for unqualified support of the state and national party nominees. I have never scratched the nominee of my party and never will so long as I remain a Democrat.

J. B. WHITE,
Chairman Milam County Democratic Executive Committee.

THOUSANDS CANNOT TAKE ASPIRIN

The discovery a few years ago of a pain relief with exhaustive tests by thousands of physicians, dentists and nures proved it to be truly wonderful, was indeed a great blessing to sufferers of headaches, neuralgia, rheumatism, neuritis, period pains. During the great flu epidemic it was conclusively found thousands could not take aspirin, acetanilid or compounds containing these.

The remarkable new discovery called A-Vol does not contain aspirin, acetanilid or any heart depressants. It is absolutely harmless to young or old. It stops pain in five minutes and instead of leaving you feeling loggy, it actually peps you up.

If you have severe headache, pains of any kind, you owe it to yourself to try this remarkable new scientific discovery. A tube of twelve tablets at your druggists costs but a few cents. Just ask for A-Vol—you will be delighted. 11-tf
